ASSIGNMENTS OF ERRORS

1. The Court erred in refusing to grant the defense counsel's Motion to Suppress his statements on the grounds that they were not voluntary. (2Tr. 65-70).
2. The Court erred when it denied defense counsel's Baston motion. (3Tr. 163-166).
3. The Court erred by refusing to allow in evidence of the defendant's state of mind as it pertained to the defenses of voluntary manslaughter and self-defense. (5Tr. 502).
4. The Court erred in refusing to grant the defense counsel's Motion to Strike on the basis that the defendant acted in self-defense. (5Tr. 605-613).
5. The Court erred in refusing to grant the defense counsel's self-defense jury instruction. (5Tr. 614)
6. The Court erred in failing to find the defendant guilty of voluntary manslaughter, and in failing to thus, acquit him of use of a firearm. (8Tr. 20).
7. The Court erred in failing to grant defense counsel's motion for a mistrial on the basis of improper argument at the penalty phase by the Commonwealth. (5Tr. 725).
8. The Court erred by denying the defense counsel's motion for a new trial based on after-discovered evidence. (7Tr. 25-30).
9. The defendant should have been acquitted of first degree murder as the element of premeditation was negated by intoxication. (5Tr. 613).
10. The Court erred when it found that there was sufficient evidence to find that the defendant premeditated, as to support a conviction for first degree murder. (8Tr. 20).