ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR

1. The Court of Appeals erred in finding that the evidence was sufficient to establish that Garrett Johnston was assaulted by a mob, as defined by Va. Code § 18.2-38.

2. The Court of Appeals erred in finding that the evidence was sufficient to establish that Daniel Payne was assaulted by a mob, as defined by Va. Code § 18.2-38.

3. The Court of Appeals erred in finding that the evidence was sufficient to prove that Kelis Hamilton was a member of the mob, assuming that one existed, that assaulted Garrett Johnston.

4. The Court of Appeals erred in finding that the evidence was sufficient to prove that Kelis Hamilton was a member of the mob, assuming that one existed, that assaulted Daniel Payne.

5. The Court of Appeals erred in finding that the evidence was sufficient to prove that Kelis Hamilton was a member of the mob, assuming that one existed, that assaulted Zachary Small.

6. The Court of Appeals erred in finding that the evidence was sufficient to prove that Kelis Hamilton actively participated in or was a member of a criminal street gang.