ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR

1. The trial court erroneously refused to bar the Authority from acquiring the subject property after July 1, 2010.

2. The trial court erroneously ruled that the subject property was in a blighted area.

3. The trial court erroneously struck the landowner's due process objection, because the Authority had a financial interest in its finding that the area was blighted.

4. The trial court erroneously applied the doctrine of stare decisis in finding that the Authority was permitted to make a finding of blight.
